Darco Now Full City Water User

The Darco Corp., one of Marshall's largest industrial firms, this week became a full-fledged customer of the city water system.

City Commissioner Chairman E. N. Power said the firm's first day water demand was metered at $2,000 a month.

The firm, Mr. Power said, has been serviced with city water on an emergency basis for the past several weeks, through temporary connections, due to delayed arrival of the meter required for such a service.

Details of the firm's water purchase contract with the city are currently being ironed out.

Auto-Makers' Steel Supplies Running Short

Industries Face
3-Weeks Shutdown
Starting in Month

By DAVID J. WILKIE
Associated Press Automotive Editor

DETROIT (AP) — The nation's auto industry is operating on borrowed time as far as its steel supplies are concerned. Shutdowns of three weeks and more starting early next month are not unlikely.

This was the word from an authoritative source inside the industry today.

EATING INTO SUPPLY

The car and truck makers had a four to six weeks inventory of steel when the steel strike began. But they have been eating deeply into these stocks and replacements have been cut off.

A top industry executive, who asked that he be not identified, said today:

"An important thing that seems to be overlooked is that if we keep going and use up all the steel we have on hand it will take three or four weeks to store up enough more to permit resumption of car and truck output."

"Shutdowns of three weeks or more are inevitable for many of the car companies if steel does not start to come through again by next Monday."

No one auto maker wants to admit his steel position is any worse than that of his competitors. But most car and truck companies, especially among the "big three" of General Motors, Chrysler and Ford, have been producing at record levels for many weeks.

HALT CHANGEOVERS

One of the effects of shutdowns next month, besides idling several hundred thousand auto workers, would be to delay new model changeovers by GM, Chrysler and possibly Ford.

Ford produces some of its own steel, but not nearly all it needs.

The car industry reportedly has some 600,000 cars in dealers hands or in storage. Many industry experts believe, however, these stocks would be wiped out before the year ends if the assembly lines stop for as much as three weeks.

Despite the threatened shutdowns, the industry is certain to break its 20-year-old production record within the next few weeks.

The record mark of 1929 was 5,358,420 cars and trucks. Factory output so far this year already is well over 5,100,000 units.

Truman Names Wallgren, Mead to Federal Posts

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman today named former Gov. Mon C. Wallgren of Washington as a member of the Federal Power Commission.

The President, at the same time, nominated James M. Mead, former Democratic senator from New York, to be a member of the Federal Trade Commission.

Wallgren was appointed to succeed Leland S. Olds, whose nomination for a third term on the power commission was rejected by the Senate in one of its major rebuffs to the President. The term expires June 22, 1954.

Wallgren's own nomination to the post of chairman of the National Security Resources Board was shelved last March by the Senate Armed Services Committee in another setback for Mr. Truman.

The President two months later withdrew that nomination.

Wallgren's new nomination also is subject to Senate confirmation. However, senators who opposed him for the resources board said they would have no objection to his appointment to another post.

Wemple Addresses Judges' Meeting

GALVESTON (AP) — Farm-to-market roads aren't the whole of Texas' highway program.

Fred Wemple, chairman of the Texas Highway Commission, said "we also have the primary highway system to think about, with its tremendous maintenance costs, and the urban systems to think about, with their routings of traffic."

Wemple spoke at the County Judges' and Commissioners' Association Convention Monday.

U. S. Sen. Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex.) notified the convention he wouldn't be able to attend.

Adjournment Hopes Rise, Conferees Agree on Details of New Farm Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Senate-House conference committee today reached "complete agreement" on a farm price support bill.

Chairman Elmer Thomas (D-Ola.) of the Senate conferees, announced the compromise and said it calls for 90 per cent of parity supports next year for cotton, corn, rice and peanuts.

Tobacco previously had been assured support at this level because both the Senate and House passed bills providing it.

Thomas said that all of the conferees, except Sen. Thye (R-Minn.) who was away, had promised "to sign the conference report."

The agreement still is subject to approval by both the Senate and which had threatened to delay adjournment — is expected to be accepted.

Hope for an agreement before adjournment had waned as conferees deadlocked time after time.

Monday the Senate conferees voted 5 to 2 to quit attempts at a compromise with the House group, Thomas and Sen. Young (R-ND) opposed this.

Thomas said that when the session ended Monday night the House had yielded on several points.

The issue was whether to go along with the House bill to maintain wartime support levels for another year, or take a long-term sliding scale of supports voted by the Senate. This scale could have dropped to as low as 75 per cent of parity.

Conferees reported that under the compromise, the supports in 1951 may not drop below 80 per cent although in 1951 and 1952 they could fall to 75 per cent.

But the compromise provides that either the present parity formula or a revised formula in the Senate bill may be used in determining support levels until 1951. Parity is a figure calculated to give a farmer a fair return for his products in terms of what he has to buy.

Washington (AP) — Government labor officials decided today on a big, final fling at trying for voluntary settlements in the steel and coal strikes.

It was strongly indicated that if Cyrus S. Ching, the Federal Mediation Service chief, fails in the various moves he has planned for this week, he will turn the two big strike problems over to President Truman as hopeless.

Then it will be up to Mr. Truman to decide if and when he wants to employ the emergency powers of the Taft-Hartley Law, including strike-stopping court injunctions, or industry seizure under the Selective Service Law.

As one step in his planned all-out drive to get strike settlements without more drastic government intervention, Ching arranged to meet in New York Wednesday with officials of U. S. Steel.

The main stumbling block in the steel strike is the method of paying for worker pensions. Steel companies want workers to share the cost. Philip Murray's CIO Steelworkers Union wants the employers to foot the whole bill.

The steel firms and Murray are fairly well agreed that the industry will put up 10 cents an hour per worker for pension-insurance costs the question now is whether the workers will put up an additional amount from their wages.

Ching also is expected to take quick action toward bringing matters to a head in coal. John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers Union and coal operators were due to resume negotiations this afternoon at White Sulphur Springs and Bluefield, W. Va.

The coal talks have idled along for more than three months without a sign of progress. Ching was reported to feel that if nothing happens in the West Virginia negotiations in the next day or two he must make a try.

Lewis has said he wants a bigger pension-welfare fund and a shorter work week for his 380,000 mine workers, idle now for nearly a month.

Meanwhile, Lewis' plan for his

Absentee Voting Starts Tomorrow

Absentee voting for the Nov. 8 special state-wide election starts Wednesday. County Clerk Glenn Link said today.

Persons who expect to be out of the county on election day, or who are ill or hospitalized and expect to be unable to get to the polls on election day, are eligible to cast an absentee ballot.

Absentee voting starting Wednesday continues through Friday, November 4. Voting is on ten constitutional amendments and this congressional district's member of the new state board of education, Grover Sellers of Sulphur Springs, and Leon Coker of Naples are candidates for the post from this district.

Commission To Meet Applicants

Seven applicants for Marshall's vacant city managership have been invited to appear before the City Commission for private interviews in the commission chamber of the City Hall at 7:30 o'clock tonight, Commission Chairman E. N. Power said today.

In addition to the seven original applications, two more applicants have filed communications asking consideration for the appointment, bringing the total inquirers up to nine, Mr. Power said.

Meanwhile, however, the commission eliminated one out-of-state applicant because of age, the man being 59, and another applicant with city manager experience withdrew because of Marshall's city manager salary limit of $5,000 per year. Voters here in 1947 rejected a charter amendment to remove the salary limit from the city charter.

The applicant, Mr. Power said, has advised him he was receiving $5,400 per year plus an automobile in his present position with a city of less than 10,000 population, and has been authorized an additional $500 per year salary increase next year.

Of the seven applicants now in the field, Mr. Power said, four are Marshall men, one of the two new applicants being a local man. None of these have city manager experience. Of four out of town men, all now in Texas, two have city manager experience, and two have engineering experience.

The office became vacant last Sept. 6 by death of E. E. Justice. Mr. Justice had held the office since early in 1948. Commissioners have expressed hopes that they may, following tonight's interviews, act to fill the office at their next regular meeting Oct. 27.

PROVINCETOWN, Mass. (AP) — A small chartered plane plunged into the sea off this town at the tip of Cape Cod Monday taking the lives of three adults and possibly two babies.

The dead were identified as Paul Daniel Lacey, 26, of Westwood; Mrs. Harold Keppel about 30, wife of a New York Times photo editor; and Mrs. Edward S. Davis about 40, of Provincetown.

Two children, Paul 2½, and Bruce Keppel, about one year, were listed as missing.

U. S. Able To Hold Pipelines

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States apparently is still able to get a lot of information from behind the Iron Curtain despite Communist efforts to plug leaks.

Disclosure of a series of official reports indicated this today.

For example, the State Department announced Monday it had reports "confirming" the Soviet mass deportation of thousands of Greeks and other foreigners from the Caucasus area of South Russia.

Others, which the department is less sure of, told of tanking in the Balkans of plans for launching a Communist guerrilla war against Yugoslavia.

These came on the heels of Gen. Omar N. Bradley's testimony before a House committee that Russia has 175 combat divisions and could raise the number to 500 in a few months.

Three weeks ago there was President Truman's announcement that Russia has succeeded in setting off an atomic explosion. Incidentally, some official reports have said the explosion took place in the area now declared to be the scene of the mass deportation.

The State Department's information almost certainly came by official channels from its envoys.

Red Troops Seize Old Treaty Port of Amoy

CHUNGKING (AP) — Communist amphibious troops completed Red control of the China coastline from Canton north today when they seized the old treaty port of Amoy.

(Chinese Communist newspapers in Hong Kong reported the Reds also had taken Swatow, another big port about 115 miles south of Amoy.)

In gloomy Chungking, the new Nationalist capital, acting President Li Tsung-jen called desperately for political reforms to spark new life in the dying government.

Li blamed past setbacks on failure to reform the government. He charged anew that the Reds, under Soviet direction and leadership, intended to turn China into a Russian vassal state.

Loss of Amoy, after a long siege, was confirmed by southwest military headquarters on Formosa. The island city — just three miles off the Red-held mainland — is 636 miles south of Shanghai and 293 miles north of Hong Kong.

The military spokesman said the Nationalist garrison retreated to nearby Kingmen Island.

Some quarters believe the Reds might invade Kweichow Province — between Chungking and Canton — and try to take its capital of Kweichow. If successful, this would effectively split Nationalist China in two.

For example, the State Department announced Monday it had reports "confirming" the Soviet mass deportation of thousands of Greeks and other foreigners from the Caucasus area of South Russia.

Others, which the department is less sure of, told of tanking in the Balkans of plans for launching a Communist guerrilla war against Yugoslavia.

These came on the heels of Gen. Omar N. Bradley's testimony before a House committee that Russia has 175 combat divisions and could raise the number to 500 in a few months.

Three weeks ago there was President Truman's announcement that Russia has succeeded in setting off an atomic explosion. Incidentally, some official reports have said the explosion took place in the area now declared to be the scene of the mass deportation.

The State Department's information almost certainly came by official channels from its envoys.

Single-Fingered Surgery Within Heart Described

By FRANK CAREY
AP Science Reporter

CHICAGO — Single-fingered surgery within the human heart, with the surgeon using a knife secured to his index finger and working by touch alone — was described today.

The American College of Surgeons was told the new technique still is on trial but so far is encouraging in the fight on a frequent disorder of the heart.

It is designed to combat a kind of log-jamming process involving the heart valve most vulnerable to the after-effects of rheumatic fever.

In the operation, the surgeon's finger explores and guides the knife through a single quadrant of the heart — an organ whose total size is about that of your doubled-up fist.

And the surgery itself is limited to the close quarters of the valvular gateway — the funnel-shaped

Fugitive for 20 Years Gives up at San Antonio

Stephens, 31, weighs only 130 pounds compared with the 240 pounds of 20 years ago when he was indicted for the murder of Capt. Charles Stevens, prohibition agent, Sept. 24, 1929.

Life of English Women Hard, Says Miss Holman

By REBECCA CAMERON

"English women are having the most difficult time of all," said Miss Mary Elba Holman Monday evening when she addressed members of the Business and Professional Women's Club.

The annual dinner in observance of National Business Women's Week was held at Hotel Marshall on the mezzanine floor. Guests of honor were Miss Louise Hamilton, president of the club, and Mrs. Natalie Williams, past president of Altrusa Club, and Mrs. Don Harper, representing the president of Beta Sigma Phi. Miss Holman's other two civic women's organizations.

Miss Eva Lancaster presided and Mrs. Florence West read the club collect. Miss Shirley Hamilton and Mrs. Nina Tittle were in charge of the program. Mrs. Mary Kyles, reported briefly on the National B&PW meeting held at St. Louis recently.

Miss Holman introduced the speaker, outlining the manner in which women's talents are used in the professions, in business and in the home.

PLIGHT CRITICAL

"The economic condition of the English is critical," said Miss Holman who spent the summer months touring Europe, and women of high professional standing and in places of leadership as well as those ordinarily employed, wear clothing we in this country wouldn't wear for yard work. They are carrying heavy responsibilities and their lives are a constant struggle. The mental institutions cannot hold the older women who have suffered shock during the war periods — there are so many victims of this condition. A bright spot in Britain is the manner in which women are handling the trade — they make wonderful guides and are thoroughly informed."

"Conditions on the continent are somewhat different," she commented. "In Holland the children look well fed and the women concentrate on housework and the growing of flowers. Their men fought so briefly in the war that few were lost in battle, hence there are fewer business concessions open to women. Many of the Dutch business women are employed in Belgium at Brussels."

SWISS WELL OFF

"In Switzerland, she continued, 'The people look well, almost untouched by war and the country is a veritable shopping paradise. The chief qualification for women in business there is that they must speak at least four languages: French, German, Italian and English. The homes in Switzerland are quaint and neat.' In Italy, radio commentators are almost exclusively women, due to their ability to speak many languages. There are

Poser on Democracy In Japan Is: Can It Last?

By Doris Fleeson
Special to The Airmail

A composite of planned democracy has been instituted in Japan. It is a composite of idealistic and some practical ideas, both theoretical and practical, have worked on it. The question remains: can it last?

Barber Shops More Dignified

PHILADELPHIA — The barber shops in Japan are more dignified than those in the United States. The barber shops in Japan are more dignified than those in the United States. The barber shops in Japan are more dignified than those in the United States.

the best - educated people of the Orient; this is not lost on them. Japanese are not allowed to criticize the occupation — a democratic practice? — and in any case they have adopted, great and small, an attitude of invincible politeness toward "the visitors." All those interviewed praised U. S. motives invariably but permitted themselves to suggest that sometimes the occupation appears to go too far too fast; that the customs and habits of nations are not so readily changed.

This hint that more gradualness would be more successful comes from sources with a long record of association with and friendship for the west.

Tokyo, of course, is not Japan and the hurried visitor cannot hope to read the people. This task has been undertaken by, among others, the noted Quaker, Nora Wain, author of "The House of Exile" and "Teaching for the Stars," who is putting her conclusions into the Atlantic Monthly, the Saturday Evening Post and a book. Miss Wain is rarely in Tokyo, lives among the people, in their inns and in their homes. She seems to feel that, as yet, the new democracy touches them but lightly.

The major paradox, of course, is the administration of democracy by an occupation. But there are others.

The Press Club, owned, financed and operated by the correspondents independently of the occupation, has been the only American club or eating place into which correspondents could bring Japanese for a meal or an interview. General MacArthur's pro-fraternization order is a long step forward. It urges Americans to mingle with Japanese in Japanese homes and hotels and, for the first time, permits persons staying in Army billets to invite Japanese guests.

Americans, with the inevitable exceptions, behave well here, it is said universally. The men are described, on the whole, as more democratic than the women who are here in rather large numbers to work or to be with their husbands. Commanding officers who initiate fraternization experiments say the women criticize them, are apt to be "difficult." These experiments are carried on off the bases; there is no American-Japanese social life in any occupation establishment.

Some free speech tests are already occurring; there will be more as the Japanese gain increasing control of their own affairs.

Accused Slayer Caught On Little Boy's Tip

DALHART — A little boy ended the big manhunt for Lenard (Lucky) Hawkins, wanted for murder.

"There's a man out there who wants some matches," 10-year-old John William Smith told his mother. "I think he's the man they're looking for."

Eight officers flushed the one-time bush league baseball player from his hiding place in a clump of trees near Middle Water, Tex., 20 miles southwest of here, at 4:45 p.m. Monday.

Hawkins, 34, is charged with murder in the shooting of Alfred Clark, 23, of Boise City, Okla. Clark's body was found last Wednesday near Jerseyville, Ill.

Officers found a .32 caliber automatic pistol in the waistband of Hawkins' trousers, but he offered no resistance.

Texas Ranger Capt. Bob Crowder said Hawkins told officers the shooting of Clark was an accident.

Clark had left his job in Clayton, N. M., with a man who offered to split a set of World Series tickets with him, if Clark would use his car for the trip to St. Louis. They believed the Series would be played there.

The pair left Clayton Oct. 3. After Clark's body was found, the hunt for Hawkins started.

Jess Felts, game warden here, said Hawkins said he would go back to Illinois to "explain Clark's death the best he could."

Felts, one of the officers in on the capture, said Hawkins told him he had been hiding in a maize field at the northeast edge of Dalhart since Saturday, Sunday night, Hawkins told Felts, he made his way through deep, rugged gullies to Middle Water.

Deputy's Finger Fractured In Making Arrest

Deputy Sheriff Wayne Bays underwent X-ray examination today for fracture of the little finger of his right hand, received in making an arrest Monday night.

Sheriff Barry Roshorough said the deputy's finger was injured in placing handcuffs on a man arrested in connection with a disturbance. The man, he said, had been under treatment for mental illness for some time.

Beckworth Is Determined In Black-Eyed Pea Scrap

Rep. Lindley Beckworth of Gladewater is determined that members of the armed forces no longer are going to be deprived of that great segment of an East Texan's diet—black-eyed peas.

The congressman is carrying on a one-man campaign to get the East Texas product added to the menu of those in the armed forces.

He has urged commanding officers of posts throughout the country to please, please add black-eyed peas to the menu. It's just not right, the Gladewater congressman argues, to keep such nourishing food from the men in the services.

The East Texan now has narrowed his battle down to the Quartermaster Menu Planning Board, right there in Washington—and word from the capital says Beckworth is going to campaign for black-eyed peas if he has to stay in Washington and fight it out all Winter.

East Texans, meanwhile, join with the congressman in hoping that members of the armed forces no longer will be deprived of the stable, nourishing, palatable peas which form such an important part of an East Texan's diet.

Child Should Do Like Others

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

It seems natural for parents who lacked advantages in their youth to try to make it up to their child and expect him to fulfill their own unsatisfied desires.

But, they would do well to throttle these aims unless they coincide with those of the child, whose own personality needs expression.

Mrs. E. A. has voiced this desire when she writes, "What is the proper wardrobe for a school child? He goes to school in a small town and we live in the country. I suppose overalls could be worn, but since he is our only child we'd like him to look nice and so be proud of him. We want to give the boy all the right and necessary things which we didn't have as youngsters."

"I don't know about hot lunches in the school but, if they don't have them, would it be all right to let him take lunch in a cafe I always carried a pail and hated it."

You are letting your ability to buy things for your boy warp your good judgment. You don't want your boy to look different from his associates because he would then be a natural target for their childish cruelty. There is nothing so gratifying to a child as to be able to "muss" up a Lord Fauntleroy child. Don't put him in this false position. Go to school and note how the majority of the children in his room are dressed. If it is in blue jeans then let him have the same.

Find out about the lunch situation. If there are facilities for serving a hot lunch you will know what to put in his lunch box to supplement it. If a hot dish is not available then buy one of the fitted lunch boxes with a thermos bottle and use this for hot cocoa or hot soup and provide sandwiches, celery or carrot strips, a tomato or orange and some sweet. He'll fare better with this lunch eaten in the company of other pupils than grandly by himself, in a cafe.

And don't put such a burden upon a young child of making you proud of him. Be proud of whatever he does that is within his capacity. Show him your interest and encourage him in every way. Having to live up to the eager expectations of two parents is often so great a task that the child bogs down. Then he is miserable and unhappy because he has disappointed you. Love him, praise him, encourage him, but live with him as he is. That's the incentive to wholesome growth that he needs from you.

Our leaflet No. 86 "How To Be A Good Parent," may be had by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of The Marshall News Messenger.

Tomorrow: "Adjust Yourself to Your Children."

When you buy Barcostrale, you buy a preparation for taking off weight. You do not pay for any printed diet or for vitamins to fortify you against weakness while on starvation diet. You need never know a hungry moment while taking this preparation. Barcostrale is the original grapefruit juice recipe for weight reduction.

Just go to your drugstore and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcostrale. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take just two table-spoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to take off ugly fat, return the empty bottle for your money back.

'Crust' of Prosperity Much Thicker Than '29

By SIGNED ANNE
WASHINGTON, D. C. — Just how thick the crust of prosperity is under the surface of the nation's economy is being demonstrated by the fact that the National Planning Association has announced that the nation's economy is now in a position to absorb an additional 1,000,000 workers without any increase in unemployment.

The association's report, which is based on a study of the nation's economy made by a group of leading economists, states that the nation's economy is now in a position to absorb an additional 1,000,000 workers without any increase in unemployment.

The report states that the nation's economy is now in a position to absorb an additional 1,000,000 workers without any increase in unemployment.

assured by the government for any losses up to $5,000.

In 1929 the money we had saved, cash and bank deposits, totaled $55 billion, and there were no government savings bonds. Now you and I are holding down deposits of $165 billion and hold government savings bonds worth $48 billion.

In other words, NPA says, if business fell off now and great numbers of people suddenly lost their jobs there should be less actual distress and hunger than in 1929 and 1930.

An average New York skyscraper will team with thousands of workers in the daytime and be almost as silent as a tomb at night.

Grand Jury Recommends Tighter Tax Regulations

OKLAHOMA CITY — Continued investigation, prosecution and punishment of tax dodgers and fraudulent tax title dealings have been urged by an Oklahoma County grand jury.

The grand jury specifically recommended that investigation of tax dodges for the month of May be continued with the possibility of discovering whether "certain owners of property may have, either directly or indirectly, bought in their own property at such resale for an amount less than the advance and special taxes assessed against it."

The grand jury report concluded an investigation into tax dealings which resulted in indictments of William F. Vahlberg, former county treasurer; W. C. Bonney, printing plant operator; DeWayne Hays, attorney, and Otis Garrett and his son, R. W. (Dick) Garrett, in connection with tax dealings in Oklahoma County.

Texarkana Eyes Fluorine Plan

TEXARKANA — Proposals to add fluorine to Texarkana's city water to reduce tooth decay are under study by a Junior Chamber of Commerce committee headed by Howard Nelson.

Connor Patman introduced the suggestion for study. City water officials termed the program worthwhile, said Texarkana's water contained no natural fluorine.

Dr. Edward Taylor, chief of dental health for the State Health Department, recently announced that the experimental fluorine program at Marshall in 29 months reduced tooth decay 23 percent among 500 observed school children.

Sodium fluoride, under the program, is added in sufficient quantity to put one part of fluorine to the million parts of water. Higher proportions, it has been found where fluorine naturally exists in water, result in mottled or discolored teeth.

It represents the county's share from distribution of the agency's surplus funds as of Aug. 31, Nelson wrote.

Judge Nichols said the county is required to report its expenditure of the money to the state board.

DALLAS (U) — The Baylor Air Attack topped the Southwest Conference football teams in passing yards, with 46 out of 77 for a percentage of .597. Burk has thrown 65 of those passes and completed 48 for 489 yards and an average of 6.62. And he has passed for seven touchdowns.

T. catcher? Well Ison has taken 22 of those completed for 235 yards and three touchdowns. It is not unusual for Ison to catch six and seven in a row.

Burk has moved into third place in conference passing as regards yards gained but is the leader in the average of completions. Top man in pitching the pigskin is Lindy Berry of Texas Christian with 62 out of 114 for 825 yards and five touchdowns. Second is Paul Campbell of Texas with 45 out of 81 for 747 and four touchdowns. Campbell ate up an amazing 259 yards last week against Arkansas.

Tobin Rote of Rice is fourth with 412 yards on 29 connections in 60 throws. He made 181 yards on Southern Methodist last week. He has passed for five touchdowns. Leon Campbell of Arkansas has surged back into first place in ball-carrying with 384 yards on 45 carries. Bob Smith of Texas A&M is second with 345 on 75 runs and Gordon Wyatt of Rice is third with 321 on 49.

Mavs, ETBC Resume Drills

By TOWNSEND MILLER

The East Texas Baptist Tigers, with two weeks in which to prepare for their meeting with Southwestern University at Georgetown, went back to work this afternoon after a day's rest Monday.

But the Marshall High Mavericks, with fast-improving South Park of Beaumont due here Friday night, pitched right into the business of getting ready Monday.

Another brisk session is on tap today.

Tiger spirits are at a new high after the tremendous upset 26-7 win over the rough Southeastern Oklahoma Savages last week end. It was only the third time the Savages had been beaten in two years.

The Tigers won their big victory despite the fact that four regulars were sidelined by injuries.

"The boys have a right to be proud of themselves for that win," Coach John O. Stephens said on their return.

He believes they have licked their fumble jinx that had robbed them of at least half a dozen touchdowns in the two previous games.

With this week's open date providing a rest, he thinks the injury jinx will disappear, too.

"We have five more games, including the last four at home. The toughest part of the schedule is yet to come, but we think we can still build up a creditable season's record to go with our .500 average for the first half," he said.

Halfback Buddy Friemel, Fullback Gene Grammar, Guard Charles Ray Barker, and Center Bill McLeod are the regulars on the injured list. But, with the exception perhaps of Barker, all should be ready to go against Southwestern a week from Saturday.

The Mavericks are working seriously for the South Park game. They know that the three-beaten Greenties would like nothing better than to break the Mavs' unbeaten record.

After being beaten by Southwestern, the Mavericks were tipped off by the Greenties that they were going to be a 60 score.

Offensive line men, they were a spirited bunch, blocking at the line a lot of hard work.

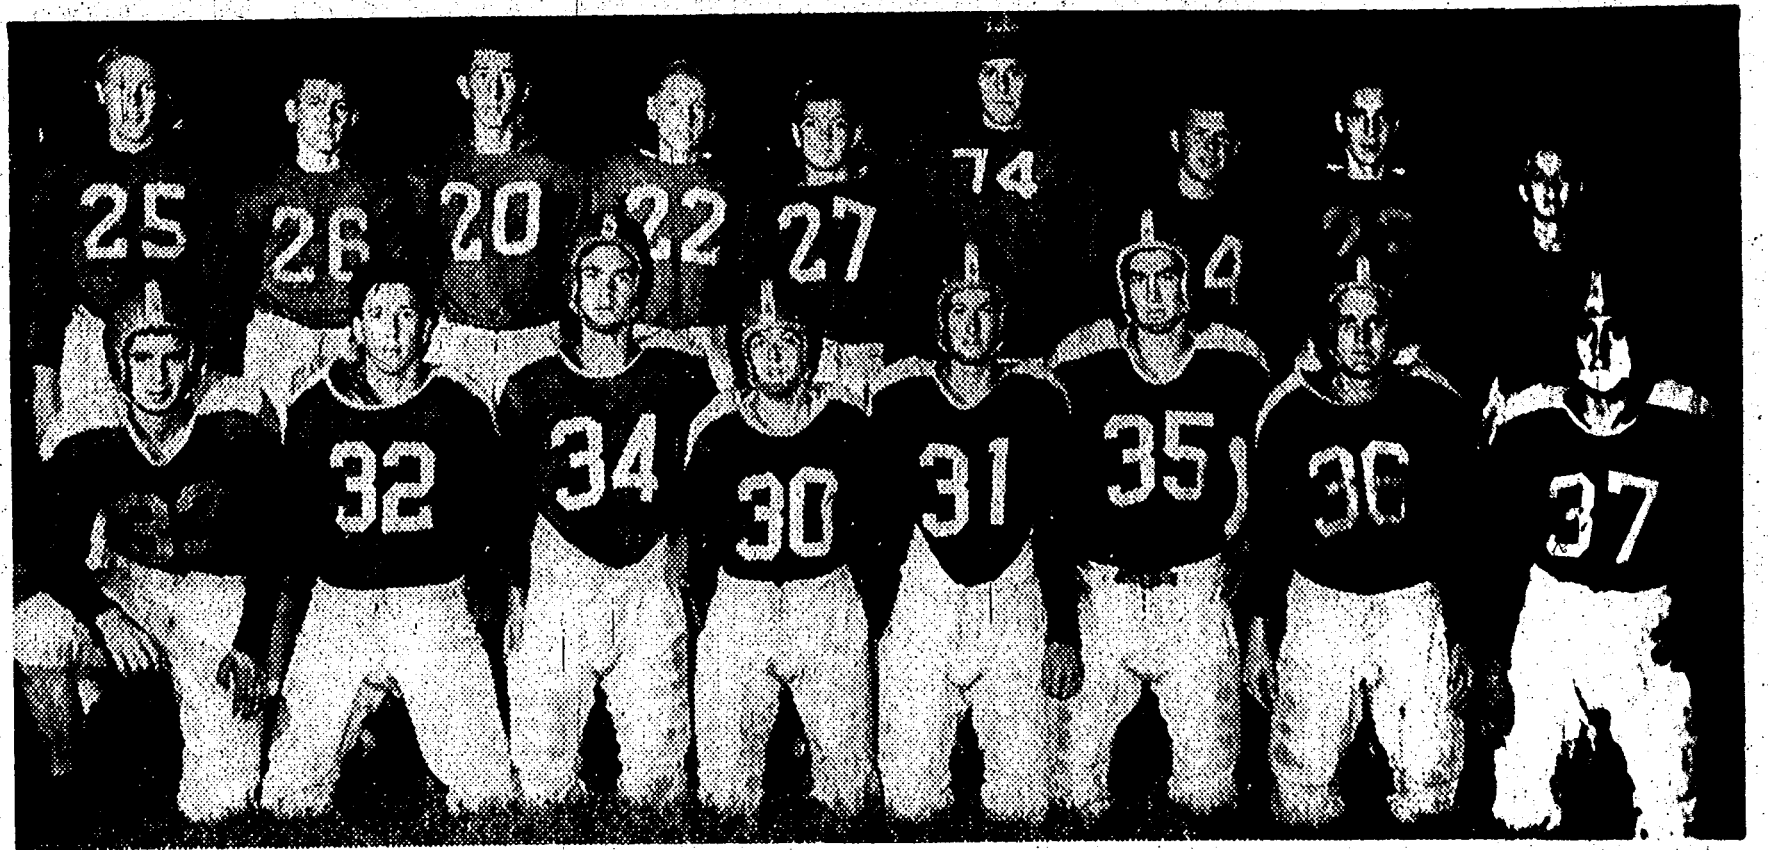

Work on defense was scheduled for Tuesday.

Notre Dame Far Ahead As Top Football Team

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK (U) — Notre Dame's super performance against a highly rated Tulane team last Saturday apparently has convinced most of the nation's football experts that the Irish belong in a class by themselves.

In contrast to last week, when Notre Dame barely won the No. 1 spot from Army, the country's sports editors and sportscasters voted the Irish a solid first choice today in the third weekly Associated Press poll.

A week ago the Irish nosed out the Cadets by 30 points. Today, Notre Dame received nearly 200 points more than the West Pointers. Of the 179 voting experts, 146 named the South Bend eleven first on their ballots.

It's been many years since a team has dominated an AP poll so completely. In all, the undefeated Irish attracted 1,745 points by their devastating 46-7 rout of the Green Wave of New Orleans.

Army, which received 58 first place votes a week ago, got only 10 this time despite its handy 54-14 romp over Harvard. Those ballots however, together with numerous seconds, thirds and fourths, gave the Cadets 1,552 points to rank right behind Notre Dame and well

Scoreboard To Be Installed

The company has promised that the board will be ready for initial use at the Marshall High - South Park Beaumont game Friday night.

The board, which the company representatives are to bring with them on a special trailer, was purchased by Marshall fans through funds derived in a drive sponsored by the local Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Others in the first 10 with their votes included: Oklahoma, fourth, 1,171; California, fifth, 875; North Carolina, sixth, 850; Kentucky, seventh, 798; Cornell, eighth, 345; Rice, ninth, 168 and Texas, tenth, 136.

Along the same line, four experts have also been obtained to demonstrate wild animal and bird calls as used in hunting. The four will demonstrate quail, squirrel, crow, and hawk calls.

Southwest Coaches Wait Over Saturday Games

By WILBUR MARTIN

Associated Press Staff

"Woe is me" is the indicated feeling of Southwest Conference football coaches.

Woe of words and woe of reports drifted out of practice sessions Monday-Saturday's game and started work for games this Saturday.

Most dire prediction of things to come came from Southern Methodist Coach Matty Bell.

"Southern Methodist might as well take the week off," he observed. "There's no use practicing if you're going against something unbeatable."

But Bell reported he had no serious injuries from last week's 27-41 licking by Rice and that his squad should be in good shape for its game with Kentucky.

Down at Rice, Assistant Coach Joe Davis said the University of Texas has been underdog this season.

"That's a good club, a mighty good club," he said. "And big," Texas, which defeated Arkansas last week, tuned up for Saturday's game with Rice with a light workout.

Two defensive regulars for Texas, Christian, Clarence Marable and End Wayne Rogers, will probably miss the Frogs' game with Mississippi.

Both received knee injuries and in last week's victory over Texas A&M and Marable was still on crutches as the Frogs went through a routine workout.

Texas A&M players heard a scouting report that, in brief, said Adrian Burk is the sharpest passer Baylor has had since Bill Paterson, one of the best all-around backs in the Southwest Conference, and as long as he is around, the Bears will make trouble for any team they play.

Congress Rushes Measures Through But Deadlocks Delay Adjournment

Driving for adjournment, Congress passed bills left and right in a home-stretch burst of speed, but failed to make the quitting time goal of Oct. 15.

Several major deadlocks were broken last week, but some remained to be resolved in the next few days.

Major highlights of the week included:

1. Senate rejection by a 15-53 vote of the nomination of Leland Olds for a third term on the Federal Power Commission. Opponents contended he did not believe in democratic government. Supporters denied this, and said the major issue was an all-out drive by the power interests to defeat Olds because he favored low rates for natural gas. Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas, in the face of presidential opposition, led the attack against Olds.

2. Senate passage by a voice vote after five days debate of the Anderson farm bill, which calls for a flexible system of supports ranging from 75 to 90 per cent of parity. Senate and House still must agree to a compromise between it and the rigid 90 per cent of parity plan passed earlier by the House, however, before a bill can be sent to President Truman.

MILITARY ASSISTANCE

3. Senate debate over a bill to liberalize admittance to the U. S. of displaced persons. The House passed its version several weeks ago.

4. Speedy House passage Oct. 14 of a bill to provide $1,314,010,000 for the Military Assistance Program (MAP).

5. House adoption Oct. 14 by a 200 to 104 roll call vote of a compromise version of Basing Points legislation.

6. A continuing battle between House and Senate regarding funds for the Defense Establishment. The bill should have passed by June 30, but still is dangling. Major point at issue is whether the U. S. should have funds for a 48 or 88 group combat Air Force. The House favors the higher figure, the Senate the lower. Senators finally passed a bill calling for emergency financing until Jan. 16. The House Oct. 14 rejected this plan, put through a stop-gap until Oct. 18, urging that differences can be adjusted by then.

NAVY IS SUBMERGED

7. A round of testimony from top Navy officials before the House Armed Services Committee, declaring that strategic bombing is undesirable; the B-36 could not effectively bomb Russia; the Navy is being submerged by giving too much funds and support to the Army and Air Force.

8. A report by the Joint Atomic Energy Committee clearing the AEC of charges of "incredible mismanagement." The report was adopted by a party-line vote, with Democrats approving and Republicans voting "no."

Other action in Congress which attracted attention during the week included:

1. Agreement Oct. 14 by Senate and House conferees to a compromise version of Minimum Wage legislation. A House vote is expected on the report Oct. 18.

2. A decision by Senate leaders to postpone until January a vote on omnibus waterways legislation.

3. Adoption by House Oct. 13 of a compromise version of legislation to raise pay of federal executives.

4. Dispatch to White House of a Supplemental Appropriation bill appropriating $78,005,129 for various federal agencies and providing $3,000,000 for the National Capital Sesquicentennial celebration, a much-disputed point this session.

5. Dispatch to the White House of a bill extending a portion of the National Housing Act and increasing by $2,275,000,000 the amount available to insure and buy mortgages on low and medium priced homes.

6. Dispatch to the White House of a bill which doubles the annual authorization for appropriations for hospital construction from $75,000,000 to $150,000,000. The federal government puts up part of the funds, local governments the rest.

Senate Majority Leader Scott Lucas (D Ill.) announced Oct. 14 that the Senate could not adjourn until sometime during the week beginning Oct. 17, because of the man, bills still in conference committees. Earlier he had criticized Sen. Harry P. Cain (R Wash.) for his length speech on the Displaced Persons bill, declaring it was a "filibuster" which would prevent adjournment Oct. 15 as planned. ## Cigar Band Collectors Smoke Little PHILADELPHIA. (AP) — There was a noticeable lack of smoke at the annual convention of the International Cigar Band Society, President Grover Greashy, of Waukegan, Wis., explained, that about 80 per cent of the Society's members don't smoke.

President Greashy, a middle-aged mechanic, and his wife brought along what they called their master collection, dating back to 1900. The collection includes eight complete sets bearing the likeness of U. S. Presidents. Mrs. Greashy also has a complete set of German rulers, from 1714 to the late Kaiser; a set of 89 flags of the world, and a set of 89 state shields. Another set displayed by Mrs. Greashy was impainted with the faces of playing cards. There was enough variety for one complete deck.

Greashy said members get their hands by swapping or writing direct to manufacturers. Some buy cigars and give them away after removing the bands.

Those people can stand in the head of the Statue of Liberty.

Engineers Add Years to Etex Pool's Life; It's Good for Two Billion Barrels

... involves control of the field's pressure and bottomhole pressure — pressure which nature places in the underground reservoir and which began building up to the surface when underground oil pockets and tapped by wells.

The Railroad Commission, the Texas oil and gas regulatory body, keeps close watch on fluctuations in the field's pressure.

When the pressure rises, the commission permits more oil to be produced. When the pressure declines, it restricts production.

Thompson explains it this way: "It means less oil per well per acre at the present, but more than the total ultimate oil recovery."

Gov. Shivers predicts that if the field continues to be carefully controlled, grandchildren of young people living in East Texas today can have oil production on their properties.

Original reservoir pressure in the field was in excess of 1,600 pounds per square inch. The wild boom days, when there were no state controls, saw the pressure drop to about 1,000 pounds.

On Jan. 1, 1943, the pressure was 1,015.71 pounds. Last June, six and one half years later, it registered 1,018.87. Close checks on production, plus other conservation practices, prevented further declines except of a momentary nature.

Lessons learned in East Texas about reservoir performance and reservoir pressure waste prevention are being applied to other Texas fields.

Thompson says the results are the same — more oil from every pool in the long run.

Churchill's Daughter To Wed Photographer

SEA ISLAND, Ga. (U) — A slender English actress with a long ancestry, Sarah Churchill, will be married here today to Antony Beauchamp, British photographer. The 34-year-old daughter of Britain's wartime prime minister, Winston Churchill, and Beauchamp made their announcement Monday. They stood amid the ruins of a monument to England's past glories, old Fort Frederica, and told newsmen that this was the climax to a week-long secret engagement. Both said their parents had been informed and approved. In fact, added Beauchamp, a specialist in portraits, he called on his prospective father-in-law before coming to America three weeks ago and received his permission to propose. For the couple it was a question of union now while on vacation since both said they planned to pursue their separate careers. Miss Churchill has made plans to appear in "The Philadelphia Story" on a West Coast tour this fall. Beauchamp has a portrait show scheduled to open in New York next month.

Life Longer For Diabetics

NEW YORK, N. Y. — Longevity of diabetics has greatly increased during recent decades, particularly at the younger ages, according to Dr. Louis I. Dublin, second vice-president and statistician of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. The large experience of the George F. Baker Clinic at Boston, as analyzed by the Metropolitan statisticians, shows that substantial gains have been made at every age. "Today the average diabetic child of 10 in the Baker Clinic experience can look forward to about 45 additional years of life," Dr. Dublin stated, "whereas just prior to the introduction of insulin in 1922 the expectation at this age was only two and a half years. Even at age 50 the expectation of life among diabetics has almost doubled, rising from 9½ to 16 years."

The striking improvement in the outlook for diabetics can be ascribed largely to the use of insulin, he said, although other medical advances have contributed to the results. Dietary regulation, however, is still basic in the management of diabetes.

"Before insulin, diabetic coma snuffed out the lives of practically every diabetic child and of most diabetic adults," Dr. Dublin pointed out. "Today coma is an infrequent cause of death among diabetics and the death rate in recent years from this cause is 99 per cent less than in pre-insulin days. Similarly, the mortality from gangrene, a common cause of death in earlier years, has been reduced 60 per cent."

$3,000 Monthly Asked by Beery's Adopted Daughter

LOS ANGELES (U) — Carol Ann Beery, 13-year-old adopted daughter of the late Wallace Beery, asks $3,000 a month to study drama in New York.

The award was approved last month but was set aside at the request of the two million dollar estate executor, Noah Beery, Jr., the actor's nephew, and Phil Beery, his manager. They told the court an allowance of $833.33 monthly should be sufficient.

Pharmacist's Collection Show Same Aches, Pains

The vaunted Twentieth Century isn't so much. We still suffer from the same aches and pains as our Nineteenth Century forbears.

To prove it, a local pharmacist has a collection of prescriptions dating back to 1883 which might well be dated 1949.

He is Jake Goldberg of Fry-Hodge Drug Store. The old prescriptions came out of a home at the moment where Mr. Goldberg owned a drug store before returning to Marshall.

Pasted neatly to what appears to have been pages out of a journal, the old prescriptions are numbered serially and are still highly legible.

Many are on prescription forms distributed to Beaumont physicians by A. J. Ward, the druggist, but others are scrawled on scraps of paper which may have been the nearest thing at hand when the physician started writing.

The prescriptions were found in the rubble of an old Beaumont home when it was torn down a number of years ago.

Some of them Mr. Goldberg presented to the state pharmacists' association, and others he has given to physician friends. He still has a large assortment, however.

The interesting thing about them is that they are still meaningful to a trained eye. The local pharmacist can tell at a glance what drugs are called for, and usually can infer what ailment was being treated.

"We still use many of the same drugs," he pointed out.

A noticeable departure, however, is the much less general use of narcotics. Well, realizing that they had no known specifics for many diseases, physicians in those days apparently prescribed narcotics, opium among others, for the relief of pain and discomfort.
